IT'S A BRAND NEW YEAR

Fresh. Clean. White. Pure. New. ...These are words that come to my mind as we reset and begin a new year. These words are refreshing, and the world is in need of these cleansing thoughts! Let's welcome 2021 with gladness, and with new zeal to love more, forgive more, and serve more...

"Hello, welcome to flight 2021. We are prepared to take off into the New Year. Please make sure your Attitude and Blessings are secured and locked in an upright position. All self-destructive devices should be turned off at this time. All negativity, hurt, and discouragement should be put away. Should we lose Altitude under pressure during the flight, reach up and pull down Prayer. Prayers will automatically be activated by Faith. Once your Faith is activated, you can assist other passengers. There will be NO BAGGAGE allowed on this flight. The Captain (God), has cleared us for takeoff. Destination- GREATNESS. -Debbie Melson

Happy New Year, and blessings to you and yours in 2021! -Jody

SPECIAL THANKS TO OUR HOMESTEAD TEAM

We are truly blessed with the best here at The Homestead! 2020 brought its challenges- as every year does-, but our amazing team pulled together, worked together, and ended the year strong! Serving our customers, whether through in-store or home-deliveries (through Covid) remained top-notch priority! Thank you, team!

Thanks for pulling together one last day of 2021- working together to deep clean both Homestead stores! This entire team deserves a gold medal! The love and care that is poured into our cleaning day is priceless. Every nook and cranny is deep cleaned and scrubbed until it gleams. It's a time to pitch, sort, organize, inventory, and get prepared for another year ahead! New paint and a little rearranging is always a fun way to kick off the year. Ready, set...go! Thank you TEAM HOMESTEAD!

Come on in and enjoy basking in some quiet peace while sipping on hot coffee and enjoying a fresh donut!
See you January 5th!

RECIPE BOX

HOT FUDGE PUDDING CAKE

INGREDIENTS

- 3/4 c. + 1/2 c. sugar, divided
- 1 c. flour
- 2 Tbsp. Black Cocoa
- 2 Tbsp. + 1/4 c. Dutch Cocoa, divided
- 2 tsp. baking powder
- 1/4 tsp. salt
- 1/2 c. milk
- 5 1/3 Tbs. butter, melted
- 1 1/2 tsp. vanilla
- 1/2 c. packed brown sugar

DIRECTIONS

Stir together 3/4 cup sugar, flour, black cocoa, 2 Tbsp. dutch cocoa, baking powder, and salt. Add milk, melted butter, and vanilla, and beat with a mixer until smooth. Pour batter into an ungreased 9" square baking pan.

In a separate bowl, stir together 1/2 cup sugar, 1/4 cup dutch cocoa, and light brown sugar. Sprinkle this dry mixture evenly over the batter.

Pour 1 1/4 c. HOT water over the top. DO NOT STIR. Bake at 350° for 35-40 minutes. Let stand for 15 minutes. Serve warm in dessert dishes, spooning the warm sauce from the bottom of the pan over the top. Delicious served with whipped topping or vanilla ice cream.

OPENING DAY

Opening day for both locations will be Tuesday, January 5th, 2021 at 7:00 am.

WEAR A SMILE IN 2021

by WADE J. ZETTERBERG

Well folks, we made it! Twenty-Twenty One! What a turbulent rollercoaster ride last year was. I don't know what lay before us, but I gladly say GOOD RIDDANCE to 2020. Between global pandemics, murder hornets, remote learning, mandated restrictions galore, masks for my masks, and never-ending contested elections, I'm ready for anything that might come close to resembling whatever is considered "old school normal".

Anyone have a DeLorean and a Flux Capacitor?

I'm so ready to be annoyed because we've aimlessly walked around the mall for way too long. I want to be irritated because the line to get into Olive Garden on a Saturday night is excessively long. Chinese buffets? Yes please! And here's hoping that 2021 can provide what I'm seeking. Fingers crossed...which would make using chop sticks fairly difficult, so maybe not? I digress...

"I just think it's wrong only one company makes the Monopoly game."

And that takes me to my next point, why can't we interject with a silly one liner right in the middle of most everything? Even if we are in a global pandemic... full of angry, murderous Hymenoptera, we can still laugh and possibly learn a new perspective. Not to mention the randomness of it would simply catch folks off-guard and potentially brighten their day with good old-fashioned humor, instead of bogging them down with more depressing news. Right? Let's locate and grab a hold of all the silver linings we can in life. And hoard them. Hoard all silver linings.

"The worst time to have a heart attack is during a game of charades."

Won't it be nice when the entire family can come over to sit around throwing dice or cards, idly watching an evening fire in the firepit, lost in conversation, while the kids chase down lightning bugs to put in empty mayo jars? No masks, talks of vaccines, or trading the latest hearsay about whatever round of stimulus checks they might be on at the moment. The way it used to be. The way it's meant to be.

"When life gives you melons, you might be dyslexic."

I wanted to keep this month's article light. I'm hoping to start this upcoming year off with a sense of humor and a heavy dose of silliness. Why? Because we've just gone through the ringer and it's time to shake it off. Like a sheepdog exiting a carwash. It's time to get rid of 2020's hold on us, so we can move forward with a smile. Because a smile can be a major obstacle for life's burdens. Give it a try!

"Are there people who are genuinely saddened by onions?" Humor can be so medicinal. So healing. Even the Bible dropped funnies here and there. My favorite: John 21:25. John was like, "Look, I can't write down EVERYTHING, people!" Now THAT'S funny. So, let's roll in this new year with smiles galore! HAPPY NEW YEAR and GOD BLESS!

"You don't need a parachute to go skydiving. You need a parachute to go skydiving more than once..."

Customer Review

This place is such a nice addition to my hometown. So much so that I visited multiple times in my last trip home. Breakfast sandwiches, donuts, snacks, sweets...everything I had there was amazing. Employees were so so welcoming, and they have some nice non-food items as well like candles and kitchen utensils that are great for gifts.
